

Violent Intruder Training

be | prepared

Learn how being prepared and having a plan to proactively handle the threat of an aggressive intruder or active shooter event. Whether it is an attack by an individual person or by group intent on conveying a message through violence, ALICE (Alert, Lockdown, Inform, Counter, Evacuate) Training tactics have become the accepted response, versus the traditional “lockdown only” approach.

Join us on March 29th at 6:00 pm for a FREE informational meeting on violent intruder training. Students will then be able to complete an online training for $10. A hands on class portraying violent intruder scenarios will be scheduled at a later date for all those who complete the online training course.

For more information please contact training instructor, Richard Amos, at 760-244-5770.
